

1959

1959-1. Let the biholomorphic mapping $z \mapsto z + a + b \sin z \pmod{2\pi}$ of the circle $\text{Im } z = 0$ onto itself be not conjugate analytically to a rotation but have an irrational rotation number. Is it true that in any neighborhood of the circle, there is a periodic orbit?